

Summary of Changes Report – January 2007

Diagnosis and Treatment of Headache

Algorithm, Clinical Highlights, Annotations

Menstrual and Menstrual Associated Algorithms) simplified the algorithms for clarity.

16) Added new screening mnemonic for migraine diagnosis and the reference Detsky, 2006.

*20) Added Chronic Daily Headache information and added the new references Dodick, 2006; Silberstein, 1996.

76) Added a new algorithm box on Bridging Treatment for cluster headaches and added the new references Husid, 2006; Sandrini, 2006; Capobianco, 2006.

77) Clarified the maintenance treatment for cluster headache.

114) Added the risks for hormone therapy to identify women who are not candidates for hormone therapy.

Appendix A) Added lower dose for sumatriptan (4 mg) and new reference Wendt, 2006.

Appendix C) Clarified the recommendations for triptans in general and sumatriptan specifically with regards to lactation.

Priority Aims & Suggested Measures, Measurement Specifications

1a-d) Combined the suggested measures for the diagnosis of headache by type.

1b) Added a new suggested measure for the diagnosis of chronic daily headache.

2c) added a new suggested measure for the use of tools to assess patients improved quality of life.

2d) Revised the measure on patients seen in the ED/Urgent Care setting.

3c) Added a new suggested measure for documentation that an assessment of treatment success was performed.

Key Implementation Recommendations) Added key implementation recommendations for the implementation of the Headache guideline.

Support for Implementation

Added a new website link to Mayo Clinic's new Headache Center.

An asterisk indicates any changes in clinical practice recommendations*