

- ICSI has developed a new format for all guidelines. This guideline has been updated to the new ICSI template.

Algorithm, Clinical Highlights, Annotations

Any reference to the Community-Acquired Pneumonia guideline was removed.

2. Key point for emergent symptoms re-written to indicate that patients with upper and lower airway obstruction and severe headache should be seen immediately.
13. Key point for patient education/home care call back instructions re-written to indicate that everyone should be educated on prevention, comfort measures and treatment of the common cold.
  - * FDA and CDC warning regarding cough and cold medication added. New reference to cough and cold medication added.
  - * Zinc paragraph re-written to reflect current evidence and literature.
49. *Treatment for sinusitis, article added regarding the effectiveness of antibiotics and topical steroids. (Williamson, 2007)

Priority Aims & Suggested Measures, Measurement Specifications

None

Support for Implementation

None

**An asterisk indicates any changes in clinical practice recommendations*